

ESTHER

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS

Dear Ladies,

Thank you so much for participating in the Online Bible Study: Esther - For Such a Time as This! I love the thought of all of us opening the pages of Esther at the same time! It's so incredible, and I am truly honored that you would join us! If you've never studied Esther before, you're in for an adventure. Esther is full of drama, intrigue, plots, royalty, twists and turns, and a sinister villain. And if you're familiar with the story, I pray that you rediscover the treasures of this Book of the Bible. Either way, as we study Esther, we'll also be looking for the unseen hand of God at work on behalf of His chosen people.

You can begin today by accessing Study Guide Week 1 through the tab in our website. A new Teaching Video will be released each Friday, starting Friday, April 3rd. Each week we will be posting the Teaching Video for you to view that corresponds with the Study Guide you've already completed, as well as the next weeks Study Guide. As we look at the providence of God, I'm praying for each of you to experience His presence in a fresh and new way through the pages of Esther!

Let's get started!

In Christ,
Michelle Staubs and the Women's Ministry Team
